

KLOVE serves me as a local resident of Phoenix by alerting me to different happenings around the PHX area that are important to me and my family. Without KLOVE and its programming, I would not have the information we need. The service KLOVE provides is in the public interest as it allows the dissemination of information re: local church and non-profit organization events.